FALL 2007

This fall we welcome several new faculty members to the German program:

Professor Morgan Koerner (Assistant Professor of German) joins us from the University of Washington in Seattle. This semester he is teaching an upper-level seminar on humor in German culture, literature and theater that will culminate in a cabaret performed by the students on St. Nicholas Day (Niklaustag).

Professor Theodore Jones (Adjunct Professor of German), a 1995 graduate of the German program at the College, received his training at the University of South Carolina and the University of Florida. He is currently teaching courses on the first and second year levels.

Professor Amy Emm (Adjunct Professor of German) also comes to us from the University of Washington in Seattle, and is currently teaching the conversation classes and working on her dissertation.
