The Stephanie Sheffield Travel Scholarship Application

2016-2017

This scholarship was created by Stephanie Sheffield and her family as part of her commitment to help the College of Charleston internationalize its curriculum. The scholarship is designed to promote travel abroad and the overseas study of business practices. The monetary value of this scholarship is dependent on available funds and will vary according to the current economic environment. Applications are due March 15, 2016 for travel in Fall 2016 or Spring 2017.

Eligibility Requirements:

• 9 hours of Business or Accounting courses completed by the time of travel.

• 12 hours of language courses by the time of travel.

• 4 semesters completed at the College of Charleston by the time of travel.

• 2.5 or higher GPA.

• Be accepted in study abroad program approved by CofC faculty.

Requirements to Apply:

• Submit a budget outlining all anticipated expenses, including travel costs.

• Demonstrate that at least 10% of expected costs will be funded by applicant.

Requirements upon Return: Submit all to Dr. Morrison, Associate Dean, LCWA 325 Jewish Studies Center. Due first week of the semester after you return.

• Submit actual budget report.

• Submit a paper discussing the culture and business practices of the country in which you studied.

• Submit a journal of experiences and activities during your time abroad.

To be considered, fill out the application located on the LCWA website, print it out, and submit the application along with two letters of recommendation on paper in sealed envelopes: one from a language professor and one from a business professor to Dr. Morrison, Associate Dean of the School of Languages, Cultures, and World Affairs, 325 Jewish Studies Center. Applications are due March 15, 2016.
